INDEX TO VOL. LI.

Abbadie, M. Antoine de 133—collected the ancient works of Upper Ethiopia 134—his exactness in transcription of them 135—discovers a new version of the 'Pastor' 145
Absolution, book of 140
Africa, Protestant missions to 251
———, exploration of 433—an expedition for, under Lord Bathurst 433—its route 435—great area opened up by the explorers 435—a still larger one to be accounted for 435—discovery of two inland seas 436—concerning the course of the Nile, 436—expedition now on foot into the interior 436—mountainous range crossing the country 437—hills of the Sierra del Crystal 438—rivers of 448—lake Ancnque 449—its climate 450 appearance of the country 451—its mineral and vegetable products 452—the native tribes 453—chief trade on western coast of 460—mode in which trade is carried on 464—mission founded in Africa by the Holy See 481
All the Year Round, the Magazine 280—its articles upon foreign countries 282
Anglesea, Marquis of. writes from Ireland about the Irish Church 354
Anenque, lake of 449
Anias John, his charge against Cecyll 22
Ant, the Bashikouay 465—the white 470
Antiquities, Egyptian, study of, 26.
Apes, African, different varieties 472
Appropriation clause, debate upon 324—carried in the House of Commons 348

Belzoni, his discovery of the tomb of Seti I. 27
Berissa, city of 443
Books, multitudes of in the present day 276—notices of 510
Bottala, l'Abbe Paul, his history of the Sicilian revolution 481
Bourbons, the, evils of their government 493, 496, 499, 502

Campbell, Sir J. upon the Irish Church 345
Carlisle, Lord, upon the Irish Church 353
Carlyle, Thomas, his Life of Frederich II. 404—admiration of his hero 407—extract from 408—account of the death of Charles VI. 416—of the taking of Silesia, 420
Castlemaine, town of, its cession to Elizabeth 8
Catholics, their abstinence from politics 188—their present duty in regard to the Papacy 213—their apathy 214—can no longer support the present government 217—how far they are bound to be grateful for the emancipation 309—Irish elective franchise granted to them in 1793, 309
Catholics, Newenham's account of the conduct of Government to them, 310
Cavour, Count. his sentiments 207—encouraged in his schemes by English politicians 216
Cecyll, his jealous observation of the Earl of Desmond 2—letters to him 2—his replies 6—proposes marriage to him 15—letter to him from the sisters of Earl Desmond 19—is accused of poisoning Desmond and MacCarthy 22
Ceylon, Protestant missions to 244
Chaillu, M. du 431—discovers the Sierra del Crystal 438—attacks upon him 445—testimonies in his favour 446—how fitted for his undertakings, 448—course of his travels 449—visits a slave depot 461—describes the animals of Africa 468—information he has given concerning the African apes, 472
Chalmers, Dr. upon established churches 319
Champollion, M. his interpretation of hieroglyphics 28
Charles I. King 392
Charles II. King 393
Charles VI. account of his death 416
China, Catholic missions to 227—Protestant missions to 231
Christians of the primitive Church 114—of Abyssinia, their religious opinions 139—their devotion to the Blessed Virgin 139—to the saints and angels 140—for the dead 140—faith in the Blessed Eucharist 141
Chronology, Egyptian 31—Bunsen's scheme of 34—similar views of others 34—Mr. Palmer's key to 35—six schemes of 40
Chronicle, old, in Egyptian chronology 41
Church, Catholic, in primitive times, details of its familiar life 108—its growing severity 124 its history at the epoch of the Revolution 380
Church, Catholic, Irish, materials for the history of 379—alone survived the revolutionary epoch 380—her subsequent vitality 384—how preserved 386—state to which she was reduced by persecution 397—persecution under William III. 399—in Italy, her condition 501—action upon society 503
Church, the Irish Protestant, the evils of Ireland traceable to 315—Newenham upon the attempt to introduce it 317—no theory can justify it 318—different opinions 318—Chalmers

319 — Gladstone 321 — opinions of British statesmen concerning it 324—the "appropriation resolution" of 1834, 324—discussion concerning the disposition of its revenues 326—Lord John Russell's speech upon 330—its extreme injustice and impolicy 355—falsehood of the supposed grounds for its establishment 393
Civilization, modern 206, 209, 210
Clarendon, Lord, his encouragement of Cavour 217
Clement XIV. his Encyclical letter 193
Clergy, Irish Protestant, character of 394
Commons, House of, debate in it on the Irish Church 320—Sir R. Inglis 340—Mr. Poulton 340—Mr. Gladstone, 441—Sir Wm. Follett 342—Sir John C. Hobhouse 343—Mr. Spring Rice 343—Mr. Richards 346—Sergeant Wilde 346
Cornhill, the magazine 285—illustrations of 289
Cycle, Sothic 38

Dacre, the old lady 57
Dalgairns, the Rev. Father, his work on communion 97—addressed to Catholics 99—plan of the work 101—extracts from 101, 104—practical part of the doctrine 107—his opinion of the present century 119—his instructions upon frequent communion 126—a review of his own life and works 130
Davenant, his opinions upon Ireland 312
Dead, the, prayers for 140
Dentition, in old age 81—instances of 82
Desmond, Earl of 1—his reception in Ireland 1—his letters to Cecyll, 2, 7, 9, 11—he leaves Ireland 16—his last letter and petition to Cecyll 20—his death, 21
Desmond, the old Countess of 51—mentioned by Sir Walter Ralegh 52—by Lord Bacon 53—by Archbishop Usher 54—by Robert Sydney 54—by Sir William Temple 55—the tradition of her dancing with Richard III. 55—by Mr. Sharon Turner 57—inscription under her picture 59—true account of her in Smith's History of Cork 59—controversy concerning her re-opened by Archdeacon Rowan 62—taken up by Sir Bernard Burke 63—her real history 64—her age over-stated 69—records of her property in widowhood 70—credibility of the story of her going to London 72—probable date of her death 77—her longevity 78—manner of her death 80—of her renewal of teeth 81—pictures of her 83
Despotism, bureaucratic, the parent of the Italian Revolution 494
Dickens, Charles, his contributions to magazines 281
Donizetti, 428
Dor, the, a tribe in Africa 457—their agriculture 457
Doyle, Mr. his illustrations in the Cornhill Magazine 289—procure the sale of the book 291
Dunsobarky, etymology of the name 363

Education, how corrupt in the Italian Universities 490—its defects not to be laid to the charge of the Popes 490
Egyptians, ancient, their customs 29
Elephants, slaughter of 466—their tusks 457
Elmsley, writer in the Edinburgh Review, anecdote of 178
Emancipation, the Catholic, motives for its concession 309
Emigration, Saracen, in twelfth century 442
Essays and Reviews, the publication 95
Eucharist, the blessed, universal practice of the Church concerning 112—frequent reception of 113—period when that reception became less frequent 118—considered in relation to sinners 120—doctrine of, held in Abyssinia 141

Fans, the, native tribe in Africa, 453—traced to the north-east 455
Fame, different kinds of 306—the most enviable that obtained by literature 307
Filangieri, General, his good government in Sicily 496—evil effects of his recall 497
Fitzgerald, Earl James, sails for Cork 1—his reception 1
Fitzgerald, the ladies, quartered upon the mayor of Cork, 18—last appeal made for them 21
Fitzgeralds, the, history of the family, 64
FitzThomas, James 10
Follett, Sir William upon the Church question 342
Frederich II. King 406—his first meeting with Voltaire 408

Gaboon, the river, 451
Ghana, city of 443
Gladstone upon the established Church in Ireland 321, 341
Glory, of the soldier 306—of the politician 307 of the author 307
Gobat, Protestant bishop, his garbled testimony concerning the Abyssinians 141
Gorilla, the, its first discovery 473—its name 473—first mentioned by the Carthaginian navigator 473—description of 474—habits 476
Government, the present, of England, its policy 217
Gregory XVI. his Encyclical Letter, 193, 194

Hermas, addressed by St. Paul 144—one Hermas author of a work entitled Pastor 144
History, Macaulay's 389
Hobhouse, Sir John C. upon the Irish Church 343
Home at Last, lines by the son of Thomas Hood 300
Household Words, the, its appearance 279—successors 280

Inchiquin, castle of 71
India, Catholic missions in 234
Indians, the, in America, their condition contrasted under Catholic and Protestant missionaries 253
Ireland, until lately suffered from the neighbourhood of England 311—writers upon her condition, Newenham 311—Davenant 312—Sir William Temple 313—owes her ill-treatment to her religion 315—literature and language of 361
Irish, the, their faults the result of bad legislation 312—their natural honesty 314
Italy, demoralized by France 205
Ivory, African trade in 466

Jesuits, their labours in Sicily 503—their expulsion 503
Josephus, his scheme of chronology 47
Journal, Chambers' Edinburgh 303

Kinsale, unaccountable action under its walls 24
Knowledge, wonderfully perfected in the present day 25—of the ancient life of the Egyptians, 29

Kordofan, in Africa, its people, 458—its trade 458—taxes levied on them by the Egyptian Government 460

Laertius Diogenes, his scheme of chronology 745
Lanigan, Dr. his history of Ireland 403
Levant, Protestant Missions to 252
Literature, Ethiopic 137—biblical 137—liturgical 138
Literature, considered as a profession 276—the modern periodical 279—general value of 298
Loft, used as a Church, falling of 399—brings about a relaxation of the penal laws 402

M'Carthy, Mr. editor of Dr. Renehan's manuscripts 391
Machabees, book of, Ethiopic version of 137
Macmillan's Magazine 292
Magazines, the old 279—the modern 279—the Household Words 280—"All the Year Round" 280, 282—the Cornhill 284, 291—Macmillan's 292—the St. James' 299—Chambers' 303
Magazines, should not depend upon single articles 282—Chambers', its first appearance 303—its merits 304—Dublin Penny Journal 362
Magrath, Miler, his letter to Cecyll 5.
Mahommedanism, in Africa, why it stopped short of the Equator 441
Mahommedans, their conquests 441—their settlements in Africa 443—so far outnumbered that further progress was not possible 444
Manetho, the 39
Manuscripts, Ethiopian 135—published by the French Imperial Government 136—their bearing upon religious subjects 139—miscellaneous 152
Maps of Ireland, orthography of 360
Marshall, Mr. plan of his great work on the missions 222, 226—extracts from 233
Meade, John, Mayor of Cork, his apology for his reception of the Earl of Desmond 12—the two sisters of the Earl are quartered upon him 18—both parties remonstrate 18
Metastasio, the poet, his description of society in his day 193
Mimosa, the, its cultivation 459
Missions, Protestant, arguments drawn from them by Cardinal Wiseman 219—by Dr. Dollinger 220—by Dr. Honinghans 220—by Sydney Smith 221—their enormous resources 224—to China 231—to India 238—to Ceylon 241—to New Zealand 249—to Oceanica 250—to Africa 251—to the Levant 252—to America 253
Missions, Catholic to China 227—their present condition 227—to India 234—present condition of 235—to America 255
Morpeth, Lord, upon the Irish Church 350

Napoleon Buonaparte, excited in Italy the Revolutionary feeling 205
Neam Nams, native tribe of Africa 455—their process of smelting iron 456
Newenham, upon Ireland 316, 317
Ngonyai, the river 448
Nile, the, scenery of 49—conjectures concerning its course 436
Nobility, the, their moral condition in Italy 499 in Rome 500
Nyanza, the lake of 436, 437

Oceanica, Protestant missions to 250
O'Donovan, John, his history 359—undertakes the examination of ancient documents 362—his contributions to the Dublin Penny Journal 362—writes upon Dunseverick Castle 363—prosecutes his studies in the summer 365—commences a compilation of Irish manuscripts 366—plan laid down by him for the publication of these works 367—publishes an Irish grammar 368—the book of rights and the Annals of Ireland 369, 370—accepts the Professorship of the Irish College at Belfast 371—publishes an exposition of the Grammatica Celtica 372—project for the compilation of a dictionary falls through 373—further publications 374—his mode of life 376—and death 377
Ostrich, the, a hunt for it 471

Palmer, Mr. his work upon Egyptian Chronicles 27, 31—his key to Egyptian Chronology 35—unravels the origin of the six schemes of 39—of the old chronicle 42—of that of Diogenes Laertius 45—his comment upon the historian Josephus 46—explanation of the Chaldean chronology 48—his style of writing 49—extract 49
Peel, Sir Robert, his words concerning Catholic emancipation 308, 309
Persecution, periods of in Ireland 383, 388, 399, 400
Petherick, Mrs. 433, 436
Pitt, Wm. the first minister who really meant well by Ireland 318
Pius VI. Pope, his Allocution on the murder of Louis XVI. 199
Pius IX., Pope, his recent allocutions 200, 209—his charges against the Sardinian Government 201
Popes, the, of the primitive Church 123—moderated the growing severity of the Church 123
Popes, the, on what grounds their temporal power should be supported 187—their allocutions and Encyclical Letters contain the soundest principles of policy 189—have been the source of Italian greatness 202—their invincible firmness 208—necessity for their temporal power 567
Porson, Professor, his biography 153—his education 155—is patronized by Mr. Hewitt 157—his progress 157—school performances 159—his drama 159—he goes to college 162—habit of intoxication 162—begins his literary career 163—obtains an independence 165—quarrels with Mrs. Parr 165—his marriage 167—his appearance 169—anecdote 169—bad habits 171—his epigrams 174—his memory 176—his intercourse with Parr 179—with Horne Tooke 180—made librarian to the London Institution 180—his death 181
Portraits, family, their introduction in Ireland 90
Priests, Irish, their career 387
Priests, in Italy, their intellectual condition 501—causes of their defects 501
Pugin, Welby, 258—his character 261—his conversion 262—his son's letter concerning his illness 263—his position in the Catholic Church 265—religious views 267—motives of his conversion 268—character of his mother 269—circumstances of his death 271
Protestantism, attempts to establish it in Ireland 388

Renehan, Lawrence F., his collections on Irish Church History 379, 388—editorship of the work 391—his treatment of Charles the First's character 392—extract from his work 394, 397

Revolution, in Italy, its causes 488—the first the existence of secret societies 488—another cause the perversity of public education 489—also the infidel literature of France 493—real grievances of the people 496—corruption of the middle classes 498—its true character described and protested against by the Pope 505—is opposed in its principle to religion 506
Rice, Mr. Spring, upon the Irish Church 343
Richards, Mr. upon the Irish Church, 346
Rivers, of Africa 448—their size 450—rivers towards the north 451
Rome, its population under the Popes and during their absence 202
Revolution, the Italian 187—French, the offspring of the Reformation 190—its effects 190—similarity between the two revolutions 192—that of 1793 set aside all laws divine and human 198—that of the present day suffered to speak for itself 211
Russell, Lord John, his speech in Parliament on the Irish Church question 327, 330—considers the objections to his proposals and answers them 334, 348, 352, 357

Saint James' Magazine 299
Saint Simeon Stylites 116
Schools of Eton and Harrow 291
Scotland, good effects in, of possessing her own Church 323
Seminaries, Catholic 381
'Shepherd," the, of Hermas, controversy concerning 145—new version of discovered by Abbadie 145—opinions concerning the authorship of 146—addressed to the refutation of the Montanist heresy 148—this version compared with the received Latin 149—passage omitted in this version 150—maintains the identity of Hermas with St. Paul 151
Sicily, her grounds of complaint against the Government of Naples 496, 497—moral evils, corruption of the middle classes 498
Sierra del Crystal, range of African hills 438, 439
Silesia, conquest of 420
Slaves, depot of, in Africa 461
Societies secret 212, 488
Society, Bible 225—Church Missionary 225—Propagation of the Gospel 225
Society, Irish Archæological, its purpose 366—publications issuing from it 367
Socrur, city of, 443
Soldier, the, his glory 307
Sothis, the star, basis of Egyptian chronology 36
Statistics, criminal, comparison of those of England and Ireland 314
Stone, the Rosetta, its arrival in England 28
Surveys, Ordnance, of England and Ireland 362—Historical Department of, supplies stopped for in 1842
Syncellus 42

Tanganyika, the lake of 436, 437
Temple, Sir William, upon Ireland 313
Tennyson, Alfred, his Idyls 293
Thackeray, Mr., his writings 286—prejudices 286—editorial grievances 287—his hatred of the Irish 287
Timbuktu, city of, its foundation 443—its prosperity 443
Tooke, Horne 180
Turner, the artist, comparison of him with Pugin 258—his moral character 258—his unhappy attachment 259—his death 271
Type, Ethiopic 136

Universities of Dublin and Durham 232—in Italy 489—in Sicily 492—horrors perpetrated in these 492

Virgin, the Blessed, veneration of her in Abyssinia 139
Veto, the, upon the appointment of Irish Bishops 403

Walpole, Horace, his "doubts" concerning the Countess of Desmond 55, 60—comments upon her pictures 88
Watson, Mr. his life of Porson 153
Wilde, Sergeant, upon the Irish Church 346
Wiseman, Cardinal, his essay and lectures upon the missions Catholic and Protestant 219
Writers, held in better estimation now pursuing their calling as a trade 278

Xavier, St. Francis 234

Yared, St. 146
Year, the Egyptian, Mr. Palmer's calculations of 35
Youghall, Warden of 71

Zealand, New, Protestant missions to 249
Zeuss, J. C. his Grammatica Celtica 372

RICHARDSON AND SON, PRINTERS, DERBY.